CR. 08-30097-02-CBK

ORDER AUTHORIZING RELEASE FOR SUBSTANCE ABUSE TREATMENT
(STEPPING STONES)

The Court believing that Defendant, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3141, et. seq., could be appropriately released to a substance abuse treatment facility under specific conditions and that such a release would overcome any risk of nonappearance and/or danger he presents to himself and to others, now, based on the totality of the circumstances present and good cause appearing, it is hereby ORDERED that Defendant shall be released, on his own personal recognizance, based on his promise to appear, to the Stepping Stones, 901 South Miller, Mitchell, South Dakota (telephone number 605-995-8180), subject to the terms and conditions as set forth herein. It is further

ORDERED that Defendant shall reside at and participate in any and all recommended programs at Stepping Stones under the supervision of staff there. It is further

ORDERED that Defendant shall be transported to Stepping Stones by the U.S. Marshal Service, on Wednesday, December 17, 2008. It is further

ORDERED that Defendant shall comply with and abide by all of the rules and regulations imposed on him by Stepping Stones. Defendant shall likewise abide by and comply with the following additional conditions:

1. He shall not commit any offense in violation of federal, state or local law while on release;
2. He shall appear at and participate in all case-related matters scheduled by his attorney;
3. He shall promptly answer all correspondence and promptly return all telephone calls from his attorney and shall cooperate fully with his attorney so that his attorney is able to properly and efficiently manage his case;
4. He shall appear at and participate in all proceedings as required by a judicial officer of the District of South Dakota;
5. He shall not enter or remain within the exterior boundaries of the Cheyenne River Reservation unless authorization is first given by the Court to do so;
6. He shall not possess a firearm, destructive device or other dangerous weapon;
7. He shall not possess, consume or use an alcoholic beverage or a narcotic drug or other controlled substance, as defined in § 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. § 802), without a prescription from a licensed medical practitioner;
8. He shall supply a sample of his blood, breath and other bodily fluids or substances upon the request of the Court, his Pretrial Services Officer, a U.S. Probation Officer or his/her designee;
9. He shall submit to a search and seizure at any time of the day or night of his person, personal possessions and property, which he may own or lease, or which he may exercise or have the right to exercise possession or control over whenever requested to do so by the Court, his Pretrial Services Officer, a U.S. Probation Officer or his/her designee;
10. He shall participate in programs approved by the Court to address issues related to alcohol and substance abuse, and follow any and all recommendations and/or directives made regarding the same; and

11. He shall not have any initiated contact, direct or indirect, with the alleged victim, Michael Little Bear Franzen, Jr. or his immediate family, his codefendant, Lance Little Dog, or H.K. (a juvenile).

It is further

ORDERED that Defendant shall remain within the confines of Stepping Stones at all times unless permission is given to leave Stepping Stones by a judicial officer of the District of South Dakota. It is further

ORDERED that Defendant shall execute an appropriate release of information to the United States Probation Office so that his progress at Stepping Stones can be monitored. It is further

ORDERED that any and all transportation from Stepping Stones for court appearances, meetings with counsel or otherwise shall be the responsibility of Defendant. It is further

ORDERED that in the event Defendant fails or refuses to comply with the rules and regulations of the Stepping Stones and/or the conditions set forth herein and is released from Stepping Stones for one or more violations of rules or conditions, he shall appear, within twenty-four (24) hours of his release, before the Court in Pierre, South Dakota, for a further hearing on his release status. It is further

ORDERED that in the event Defendant fails or refuses to comply with the rules and regulations of Stepping Stones and/or the conditions set forth herein and is released from Stepping Stones for one or more violations of rules or conditions, he shall appear, within three (3) hours of his release, before the Court in Pierre, South Dakota, for a further hearing on his release status. It is further ORDERED that upon his release and/or discharge from Stepping Stones, whether after successfully completing treatment or not, a written report of Defendant's status and progress while at Stepping Stones shall be filed with the Court and shall include any and all treatment and placement recommendations.

ADVICE OF PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS

Violation of any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for the Defendant's arrest, a revocation of release, an order of detention, as provided in 18 U.S.C. §3148, and a prosecution for contempt as provided in 18 U.S.C. §401 which could result in a possible term of imprisonment or a fine.

The commission of any offense while on pretrial release may result in an additional sentence upon conviction for such offense to a term of imprisonment of not less than two years nor more than ten years, if the offense is a felony; or a term of imprisonment of not less than ninety days nor more than one year, if the offense is a misdemeanor. This sentence shall be consecutive to any other sentence and must be imposed in addition to the sentence received for the offense itself.

18 U.S.C. §1503 makes it a criminal offense punishable by up to five years of imprisonment and $250,000 fine to intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, juror or officer of the court; 18 U.S.C. §1510 makes it a criminal offense punishable by up to five years of imprisonment and a $250,000 fine to obstruct a criminal investigation; 18 U.S.C. §1512 makes it a criminal offense punishable by up to ten years of imprisonment and a $250,000 fine to tamper with a witness, victim or informant; and 18 U.S.C. §1513 makes it a criminal offense punishable by up to ten years of imprisonment and a $250,000 fine to retaliate against a witness, victim or informant, or threaten or attempt to do so.

18 U.S.C. §3146. If after having been released, the Defendant knowingly fails to appear as required by the conditions of release, or to surrender for the service of sentence pursuant to a court order, he shall be punished as hereafter provided in this section. If the Defendant was released in connection with a charge of, or while awaiting sentence, surrender for the service of a sentence, or appeal or certiorari after conviction, for:

- (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more, the Defendant shall be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than ten years, or both;

- (2) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, but less than fifteen years, the Defendant shall be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;
- (3) any other felony, the Defendant shall be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both;
- (4) a misdemeanor, the Defendant shall be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

A term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear or surrender shall be consecutive to the sentence of imprisonment for any other offense. In addition, a failure to appear may result in the forfeiture of any bail posted.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF DEFENDANT

I acknowledge that I am the Defendant in the above-entitled case and that I am aware of all of the conditions of my release. I promise to obey all conditions of release, to appear as directed, and to surrender myself for service of any sentence that may be imposed. I am fully aware of the penalties and sanctions set forth above.
